LAC LA BICHE BUS DRIVER RETURNS FROM TWO-WEEK U.S. TRIP

LAC LA BICHE. — Mr. Stan Dacyk, bus driver for the Canadian Coachways from Edmonton to Lac la Biche, is back on duty after spending two weeks' holidays in San Francisco.

Stan visited his three sisters and one brother in San Francisco whom he had not seen for 14 years.

He also visited a brother in New Westminster. It had been 20 years since he had seen him.

Stan reports the weather in San Francisco the same as here, and the people very sociable, but was glad to be back on his run.

Stan is very courteous to his passengers to help them on and off the bus and tries to make them comfortable, meets one and all with a smile.

Optometrist Coming To Lac la Biche

LAC LA BICHE.— Ralph W. Le Drew and James G. Rowand Le Drew and James G. Rowand, Edmonton optometrists, announced this week that Mr. Rowand will be here, at the Lac la Biche Hotel, all day Thursday, October 19.

Residents wishing to consult Mr. Rowand should contact the hotel.

Road Impassable Around McRae

No cars, trucks or other vehicles can pass through the McRae-Brierville section of the Lac La Biche-Spedden Highway, as road building operations just previous to the heavy rain and snow storm of nearly twelve inches fall, has made this section a quagmire. From Briereville north to La Biche the roads are practically dry. The maintenance outfit is stuck south of this really bad portion.

Peter Erasmus, working at Warwick for the past month or more is back home again. The nine and a half-pound son has gained several ounces since Pete's departure.

Mr. Worthy Martin from Lac La Biche, was in the district over Sunday. Urgent business in these parts forced him on a long detour through the old trail by Goodfish Lake. It's a laugh when the road builders get stuck on their own road construction and their own outfits can not give them a helping hand.

Two abandoned Fords—Model A.—are stuck on the trail near Boyne Lake. No one seems to know their owners. Roads are bad when a Model A. gets hung up. With the last signs of snow still on the hill sides on Oct. 9, perhaps the owners will claim their property when the roads are dry.

District Couple Married Recently

EGG LAKE.—On Sept. 30, Luc Dionne, son of Luc Dionne of this district, was married to Emilia Duperron of Breynat.

They were supposed to get married at Breynat, but the future bride went to Lac la Biche on Sept. 28 for the license and the tests and was unable to return home on account of a snowstorm and rain that made the roads impassable.

The dinner and supper were served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Bourassa, uncle of the bride and the dance was at Dionne school. The newlyweds will reside at Egg Lake.

Mrs. H. E. Tatum was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Patry at Athabasca while having dental work done by Dr. G. Olson.

Mr. Nick Cherkas is back home after spending the last six months at Fort Smith working in a garage. He likes the town of Fort Smith and he reports good wages there. He left Fort Smith by plane at 10:30 a.m. Friday, arriving in Edmonton at 2:30 with a stopover in McMurray of one and a half hours. He covered 467 miles in two hours and 30 minutes. Nick arrived here by bus at 10:30 p.m. He was away the longest he has been away from home for 38 years when he left the old country to come to Canada.

Mrs. Seigun and daughter Clare were in the city recently.

Muriel Fischer Feted At Grassland

GRASSLAND.— On Wednesday a number of ladies met at the home of Mrs. Boiselle where a shower was held for Miss Muriel Fischer, of Grassland, who is shortly to be married to Philip Derousseau, of Sarrail. A large number of kitchen utensils were presented to the bride-to-be, which will no doubt prove useful to her in the years to come.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith MacDonald and family have moved to Cramer's Landing, where Mr. MacDonald will be operating his sawmill through the winter months.

Miss Joyce McKenzie spent the week at home, and will return to Athabasca on Sunday, to resume her studies at the high school.

The parents of D. S. Semeniuk have been spending a few days at Grassland, and on Thursday paid a visit to Mrs. Semeniuk's parents at Sarrail.

Mrs. Bessie Kanzig spent a few days in hospital last week, at Lac la Biche.

Grassland is still without light and power since fire destroyed the garage last month. A small plant is at present supplying the blacksmith shop and the cafe, and also the hall on show nights, but for the rest of the inhabitants it is "back to oil lamps again."

Dollar's New Value Lowers Prices

Budget-minded housewives are expected to find some relief from high prices in the new dollar valuation announced by the government. Many imports from the U.S. formerly bought at the 10% premium will now sell in Canada at the same price as in the U.S.

An Unfair Burden

We have before contended in these columns that, while the commendable job of extending Alberta's paved road program is pursued with all rapidity, the gravel roads not immediately hard-surfaced should not be neglected. Too often ,this is the case. And in the case of the Municipal District of Sturgeon the policy of neglected gravelled highways is making for an extra burden on the ratepayers of this municipality.

In fact ,no part of the oil development program in the Redwater field—so profitable to the promoters and the government—is in any way a boon to the taxpayers. A great deal of the oil development is taking place within the Municipal District of Smoky Lake, and so the Sturgeon District is deprived of much revenue around Redwater. The oil companies have established their big refineries—lucrative sources of tax revenue—in the Strathcona Municipal District, and about all that Sturgeon is left with are miles of rutted roads, that used to be good highways. The Provincial roads are so bad that truckers and others use the Municipal roads wherever possible and so they too are becoming rutted and worn, nearly unfit for traffic.

The solution to this problem, of course, is for the Province to get busy at once with a hard surface road connecting Redwater with Fort Saskatchewan trail. Then it can be expected traffic will keep to the paved highway and spare the gravelled municipal roads.

It isn't right that ratepayers in the Municipal District of Sturgeon, forced to pay taxes without the help of such tax-free institutions as the Namao Airport and Oliver Institute, should have to dig deeper into their pockets to maintain roads for oil traffic paying the Province big dividends without getting a nickel's worth of revenue to ease their own tax burden.

The Long, Red Arm

One of the most startling things we've heard in a long time was recounted at a special meeting Sunday afternoon in the Capitol Theatre in Edmonton. It was told by a Youth for Christ speaker.

Some time ago a missionary about to leave for French Equatorial Africa, in a farewell message delivered over Rev. Bob Simpson's SUNRISE GOSPEL HOUR over CFCN, Calgary, made a few disaparaging remarks about Russian Communism.

Months later, upon landing in Africa, his visas were taken from him and his entry to the French colony greatly delayed. The reason given for this interference was the anti-Red remarks given over the Gospel broadcast at Calgary.

We have no way of checking this story, and any reader having first-hand information might write and substantiate it, or, if they know it not to be as told here, correct us.

If Russian Communism is so powerful in colonial France, as to influence immigration officers, how great is our peril anywhere in the world! Surely, time is running away from us and we must hurry to catch up.

The CCF and Regina Manifesto

The CCF National Convention in Vancouver in August scrapped the Regina 'Manifesto' (1932) and authorized a committee to draft a new document to be submitted at the next national convention in 1952.

Robert McKeown reports in the Montreal "Standard", September 16, that "something of a compromise between state ownership and complete free enterprise seems to be in the making . . . Socialism is declared to be the half-way house to communism. The drafters of the statement are directed to make clear the fundamental differences between both communism and liberalism and democratic socialism."

CCF-ers have found it hard to believe that the people of Canada are not interested in their doctrinaire approach to Canadian problems.

It will be interesting to see if the CCF party can survive a rendering asunder of the now discredited doctrines which they have advocated for a number of years. If they completely abandon the nationalization of industry as a remedy for all our economic troubles, what will they find as a substitute?

The Unseen Audience

By T. W. PUE

My principal source of entertainment is that modern miracle that everyone knows about but which nobody really understands, the radio. I don't think that even television, if and when it ever comes to Alberta, will be half as interesting to me as radio. I can drive a car, write letters and editorials (this one is being written to the tune of CANDY and ZIP-A-DEE-DOO-DA), carry on a reasonably intelligent conversation or even fall asleep while listening to the radio.

T. W Pue

In short, I can enjoy radio without giving it my whole-hearted attention. Not so television. But this article isn't to discuss the entertainment qualities of radio. I'd like to discuss some of the claims made for radio's power as an advertising medium.

How Many Radios?

I believe the broadcasting companies claim about 200,000 radio sets in the province. Nearly everyone has a radio and so everyone hears your sales talk, when you broadcast it, you might say, but this is far from the truth. I don't believe any station advertising man would make a claim like that, but just the same, big estimates of listenership can be mighty misleading.

Process Elimination

Assuming that there are 200,000 radio sets, you can be reasonable certain that not more than 95%—or 190,000 are in working order at any one time. That's why they have radio repairmen. Of the balance, at any one time, probably not more than half are on. That leaves 85,000 possible sets reproducing any one program.

Actually, of these, probably only half, or 42,500 have anyone attentively listening to them, that actually hear what's being said.

There are ten radio broadcasting stations within the range of most radio sets, so, on the average, each station has a listennership of only 4,250.

Compared to the daily newspaper circulations, this is a puny figure. The Edmonton Journal daily enters 50,000 Alberta homes. And for the advertiser who wants thorough coverage I'd say radio is thoroughly unreliable. How many farmers, for instance, will listen to a radio program at 11:00 p.m. in the middle of August? I don't know of any. How many are close to their firesides at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in harvest time? So you see, there are many thoroughly "blank" periods in radio that just don't have a substantial following.

Radio vs. Local Paper

When the local, hometown paper arrives it arrives to stay. It doesn't matter much if the man of the house is home or not when the mail arrives—he can still get your advertising message. If he's busy today he'll read it tomorrow.

If you want to reach the home-town folk as thoroughly by radio, you'd have to monopolize the broadcast time on every station for at least one hour at the best radio time. But don't try to buck Twenty Questions or Amos n' Andy. The big national shows have the best radio times. So you'll have to take the chance on getting 4.25% of those you want to reach by advertising over only one radio station at any one time.

The unseen audience may not be there.

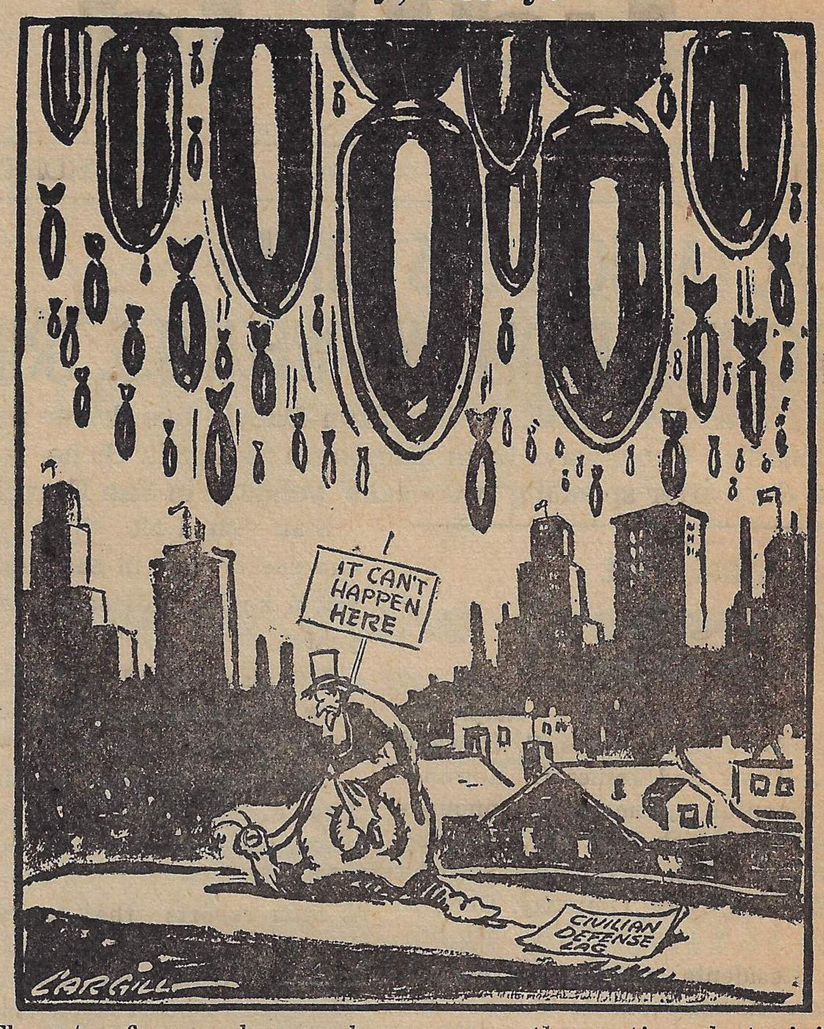

Scriptural Meditations

By AINSLEY BLAIR

"We sustain a loss when we neglect the privilege of associating together to strengthen and encourage one another in the service of God. The truths of his Word lose their vividness and importance in our minds. Our hearts cease to be enlightened and aroused by their sanctifying influence, and we decline in spirituality. In our association as Christians we lose much by lack of sympathy with one another. He who shuts himself up to himself is not filling the position that God designed he should. The proper cultivation of the social elements in our nature brings us into sympathy with others, and is a means of development and strength to us in the service of God."

Voice of the People

"VOX POPULI, VOX DEI"

BOOM!

Dear Sir,—I just returned from a newsreel, where one film showed a Ku Klux Klan initiation. Ironically, the very next scene was from the Korean war, with American boys dead, dying and wounded. These Americans were fighting for democracy, their masquerading Judases, with hate in their hearts for Jews, Catholics and Negroes were stabbing them in the back. I suggest we send our special force to Alabama and straighten up those Southern Americans on what the four freedoms mean.

SLY JOE

Dear Sir,—I'd like to answer the reader who wants to know how it is we're sending Canadian soldiers to fight in Korea. The Russians have been planning this ever since the Germans quit. This sort of thing will continue as long as there is a sneaking rat like Stalin hiding behind innocent people who are duped into fighting for him. He and his cowards won't come out into the open, just like our own Canadian Communists who cry for "peace" when there is no peace and all they want is peace for the Russians to conquer us all, starting in Korea.

POPPY FUND

Dear Sir,—The Canadian Legion Poppy Fund is making its annual appeal for funds.

Poppy Day this year is November 4th and it is our ardent hope that every business in the City of Edmonton will display a wreath to commemorate Remembrance Day—November 11.

Wreaths can be purchased now so that they may be displayed until Remembrance Day and then placed on the cenotaph. They range in price from $3.00 to $30.00.

The Poppy campaign is the only co-ordinated national appeal to the public for funds to alleviate distress among ex-service personnel and their dependents.

May we appeal to your readers to assist us in this worthwhile campaign by either telephoning us your order, or mailing your donation to this office.

You're Welcome

Dear Sir,—On behalf of this branch, the National Film Board, the officials of Elk Island National Park and the artists concerned, I should like to express our appreciation for your cooperation during the summer months in publicizing the Sunday concerts, arranged for visitors to the park.

1950 was undoubtedly our most successful season to date. Not one of the 17 concerts arranged had to be cancelled because of weather conditions and they were evidently much enjoyed by the park visitors.

We are hoping to present a similar series next year and trust we may count on your support again at that time.

Yours sincerely,

New Army

Dear Sir.—I'm worried, Canada has raised a commando army to fight in Korea, and to that end has taxed the kids' gum, pop, pencils, candy, etc., but how come those tax expert extorters overlooked taxing also the kids' cowboy suits, six-shooters, toy balloons, and especially those three cornered pants, so many of the kids wear?

Ottawa's blunders get worse every day. But what about this army? Prime Minister St. Laurent would like to lose it after missing the Korean bus, but not the gum, candy taxes, so if anyone needs a private commando army, send in your offers, but remember—Wall Street has first choice, always.

OLDS BY-ELECTION LOOMING AS TWO-WAY POLITICAL PARTY FIGHT

First provincial by-election since the general vote of 1948 to be held Nov. 16 in the rich rural constituency of Olds will probably be a two-way fight, with Social Credit and Liberal candidates facing each other at the polls

The seat has been held by Social Credit since 1935, and became vacant this summer through the death of Norman E. Cook.

Social Credit has already nominated Fred Niddrie, 56-year-old Mond district farmer, and it is expected the Liberal party will hold its nominating meeting this Thursday.

Robert A. Andison, chief electoral officer, has announced nominations will close Nov. 6 O. A. McArthur of Huxley has been named returning officer.

The Social Credit candidate won his party's nomination over four other candidates at a meeting this week in Olds.

Helen Ratzay Wed To Stanley Tkachuk

CRAIGEND. — Helen Sebry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ratzay, was wed to Stanley Tkachuk, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eli Tkachuk of Craigend recently.

The wedding began with a short church service in the Anglican Church at Lac La Biche. Entering the church, the bride was on the arm of her mother. She wore a sheer floor-length dress with a veil held by tiny flowers on her head. She carried a bouquet of roses and carnations. Her only jewelry was three-strand pearls and earrings, a gift of the groom.

The bride had three bridesmaids: Rosie Paskar, Marie Cote and Natalka Tkachuk (sister of the groom). Each of the bridesmaids wore floor-length gowns with shoulder-length veils.

The groom was assisted by three best men: Mr. John Uulowk, Mr. Wililam Yakemic and Mr. Walter Gordichuk.

Mother of the bride chose a light colored jersey dress with dark colored floral design. Mother of the groom also wore a light colored jersey dress with mauve floral designs.

On returning from church, all friends and relatives were welcomed to a reception at the home of the groom's parents.

During the reception a toast was drunk to the bride and groom by all guests. The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts.

In the evening a wedding dance was held at Cristy Creek where the couple will reside.

Where Life Is Tough

Never having worn a pair of shoes in her life, the mountaineer's feet were tough as leather. Her husband, stretched out on the cabin floor, watching her stir the stew in the fireplace, laboriously lifted a hand to remove his corn-cob.

"Maw," he said, "best move yore foot. Thar's some live ashes under it."

Municipal Delegates Gather For Two-Day Convention

Delegates assembled at Medicine Hat on Oct. 5 and 6 for the 46th annual convention of the Union of Alberta Municipalities.

Throughout the convention there was a drive on the part of delegates to obtain a greater share of the large provincial income to relieve municipal financing problems. Minister of Municipal Affairs, the Hon. C. E. Gerhart stressed to the meeting the government's policy of using oil revenue only for capital expenditures, though he did state "it is not the policy of our government to allow any municipality to wallow in distress, if distress there is."

The steadily rising cost of education to municipalities was a matter of grave concern to councillors, and after a good deal of discussion a resolution was passed requesting the government to assume a much larger proportion of the basic costs of education—meaning those costs required of local school boards by reason of statutory requirements — in all school units of the province, and that the total amount of provincial grant to any one board should be not less than 30 per cent of such total costs for the previous year.

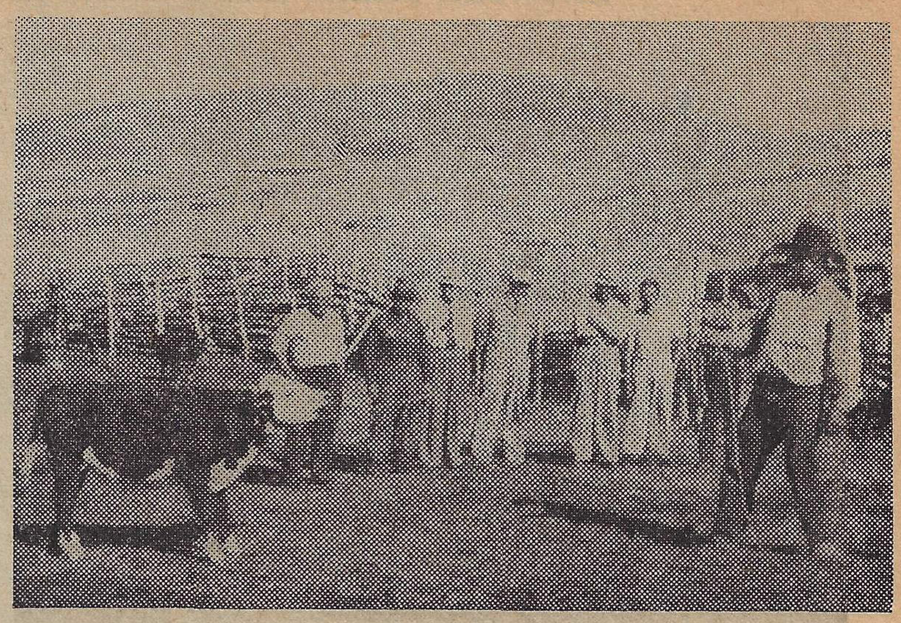

It was decided to set up a committee of the Union to discuss the whole question of education costs and its relation to taxation and that after full discussion arrangements should be made to present its findings to the provincial cabinet.

Other resolutions passed included one from Lethbridge that the government implement Sec. 35 of the National Housing Act to aid municipalities in opening new housing subdivisions; that the government undertake the construction and maintenance of provincial highways through Alberta cities; and one from Edmonton requesting the government to review and amend its present policy with respect to the payment of federal health grants so that continuing expenses are recognized as a proper charge upon the grant.

The County Act passed at the last session of the legislature was the subject of a discussion led by Mayor H. Lynch-Staunton of Didsbury. Mr. Lynch-Staunton was of the opinion that this Act would contribute to a stronger local government because the county councill would have complete and real responsibility, both financial and administrative and would be in a position to determine first the ability of the taxpayer to pay and thus avoid the danger that at present exsists of forcing taxes up to the point where they cannot be met.

He did, however, offer some criticism, especially in regard to the appointment of additional members to hospital, educational and health committees by the committees themselves, which he felt to be undemocratic. He suggested that the members of the three main committees might better be elected by the electors as members of those committees. On this point he stated: "The electorate have the right to say who shall operate their business for them.

New Mark of Progress

Ranch of Johnny Walters, northeast of Morrin, Alberta, was the scene last week of the first calf vaccination in Canada under the compulsory scheme to eradicate brucellosis disease, now in effect in Starland municipality, which lies just north of Drumheller. Albertan Returns From Trip to Middle East Lands

After a lapse of 46 years there are great changes in the countries of the Mediterranean, found A. Hamilton, of 87 St. George's Crescent, Edmonton, when he returned to his native Lebanon for a visit recently.

Mr. Hamilton, who lived for years in the Lac la Biche district after his arrival in Alberta in 1904, spent four months this summer visiting Italy, Greece, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Turkey.

He went to the Middle East by steamship and returned by air, travelling alone.

The trip was solely a vacation, says Mr. Hamilton.

On his arrival back he told this newspaper "Our country is best", in referring to his adopted land of Canada, after seeing the strife-torn nations of the Mediterranean.

Mr. Hamilton visited his native town in Lebanon, and found a few old friends still living there.

He also took in the sights in other near-by countries, including most national capitals.

Mr. Hamilton found Turkey to be a nation whose people were reluctantly preparing for a war that many Turks think might come at any time. A very large army is being maintained there, with the result that little revenue is left for welfare and improvement projects.

Greece would seem to be the poorest country in the Mediterranean, says Mr. Hamilton, although political order seems to be firm there now that the communist rebellion has been securely put down.

Snowfall Ruins Some Alberta Harvests

Wet, slushy snows have fallen in certain sectors of Alberta, ruining vast quantities of grain. In some sections where harvesting was abnormally late, grain was buried under seven inches of snow. This bridge was photographed at the height of a freak snowstorm.

Blaze Strikes Farm Home In Recent Early Morning Fire

REDWATER. — Fire struck at 3:00 a.m. last Friday at the farm home of Roy Smok, of the Opal district, destroying two buildings before being quelled.

Garage and granary, located about 75 feet from his house was burned, along with a 1949 Ford truck, 7,000 feet of lumber, and some grain.

Mr. Smok managed to save his new tractor from the fire, but both buildings are a total loss.

Origin of the fire has not been retermined. Only the truck carried insurance.

Redwater streets are being graded, holes are being filled in, and the first coat of crushed gravel is being applied here. Contract for the work was awarded recently to the Wosnack Brothers of Redwater.

All main streets and avenues of Redwater will be gravelled by the end of the week.

Natural gas will be serving residents of Redwater within another month if the weather holds out favorably.

Bannister Construction Co. has begun laying the gas mains on the eastern and northern boundaries of the village ,and the school will probably be the first unit to be connected.

Farmers have resumed threshing in Redwater district. Although the grain is graded as tough in the local grain elevators, farmers are gathering their crops as fast as possible due to the already-lateness of the season.

Thomas Bruchal Is Married To Molly Romaniuk

REDWATER. — Thomas Bruchal, village secretary-treasurer, was married to Molly Romaniuk of Lamont in a pretty wedding ceremony in Edmonton Saturday.

Rink, situated on the Imperial Townside near the new high school, will be rushed to completion before winter sets in.

An electrical transformer weighing over 32 tons has been set up on the farm of Walter Malowaney, one and a half miles south of Redwater, by Calgary Power Limited to supply power in the Redwater, Egremont, Thorhild area.

Redwater village council has contributed $150 toward playground equipment for village high schools. A new slide and other equipment is planned.

Legion Holds Regular Meeting

SMOKY LAKE—The Canadian Legion branch of Smoky Lake held their regular meeting on Thursday night, Oct. 5, discussing and planning for the November 11 Remembrance Day.

The branch will hold a parade service, then followed by a banquet at the National hall.

Commission Refuses Taxation Appeals

REDWATER — Applications to the Commission for lowering of the tax assessments by four Redwater citizens have been rejected.

Messrs. M. Sondage, N. Ziniuk, G. Hunchok and Royer heard this handed down by the commission in the village office on Wednesday, Oct. 11

Also sitting with the three commissioners were Mr. Gee, the assessor and Mr. Bruchal, the village secretary. These applications to the commission were made after the court of revision did not meet the approval of the above ratepayers during the second week in July.

DEER LAKE, Nfld.—This former pulp and paper "company town" has voted for self administration with the full consent of the company concerned (Bowater's). St. John's is the only other self-administered community in the entire province.

PAYING BILLS—Have you ever paid the same bill twice, because someone made a mistake, and you were unable to prove that you had already paid it? Do you always have the necessary receipts for Community Chest or other donations and the doctor's receipts ready for income tax returns?

Homemakers who formerly worked in offices may realize the wisdom and necessity of filing these receipts. But there are some of us who have suffered embarrassment because we were unable to put our hands on the one which we wanted. We may vaguely recall having received such a slip of paper, but cannot even remember whether the color of it was pink, blue, or white, let alone the date or amount.

But it is more than that! Receipts also represent our desire and ability to pay as promised, which constitutes one means of establishing our credit rating. Retaining receipts not only proves that we paid for such and such; it also gives us something to show HOW we paid, which has more value than our given word, no matter how good we think that is.

* * * *

'ON FILE'—All homemakers file, whether they consider it as such or not. Their filing may be nothing more or less than deciding where to keep things, and then seeing that they get there. This includes recipes, linens, books, photographs and even clothing stored for summer or winter use. Sometimes the filing may be just a case of good memory—and it is surprising just how good it is!

But it isn't quite so easy to remember the dates and amounts of receipts.

An actual filing system works better. An ordinary shoe box containing a few large envelopes labelled insurance, taxes, equipment, doctor's bills, donations, etc., is all we need to retain these important receipts. It is also an excellent plan to set aside a few minutes occasionally to keep these in order. Even if they are not perfectly arranged, this simple set-up will assist us. For in any case it avoids having to go through papers piled one on top of another to discover that the one we want is invariably at the bottom. It is best to keep our file handy so that incoming receipts will find their way into the box, instead of being set aside.

Even an expensive desk will not serve as well for this purpose, for its drawers and cubbyholes may gather correspondence and clippings as well.

Vilna District Pioneer Dies

VILNA.— Mrs. Sarah Whitford, long-time resident in the Vilna district, died in the Vilna hospital on Tuesday 28 of September, after a stroke from which she did not revive. Mrs. Whitford's death follows that of her brother David Erasmus by slightly over a month. David was the last of the boys of Peter Erasmus, a guide and interpreter mentioned frequently in the historic annals of Alberta in the early days. Sarah was the baby of the family. Mrs. Eliza Borwick of Vilna, Mrs. Caroline Henderson and Mrs. Pete Williams of Ashmont are the last living daughters of Peter Erasmus.

Mrs. Whitford leaves to mourn her loss, two sons Donald and Arthur; and a daughter, Amelia, all of the Vilna district. Arthur is a veteran of the last war. Morrish, the younger brother was killed in action overseas, both enlisted on the same day.

Solution To This Week's Puzzle

The LIGHTER SIDE

Right!

Tourist: "What are those church bells ringing for, my lad?"

Urchin: "Cos somebody's pulling 'em!"

Would Be Tragic

"The best thing for you to do," said the doctor to the man with a nervous complaint, "is to stop thinking about yourself and bury yourself in your work."

"Good heavens!" said the patient, "I'm a concrete mixer."

Only Father

He: "Say, who is that funny-looking fello wwho drives your car and works around in the garden? He always frowns at me whenever he sees me here?"

She: "Oh, don't mind him. That's only father."

Short and Sweet!

One day, in a thoughtful mood Lincoln's little son, Tad went into the White House study, climbed up on his father's knee, and inquired, "Papa, what did you say when you proposed to mamma?"

Mr. Lincoln tried to evade the question, but the youngster persisted.

"Well," at last came the reluctant reply, "if you must know what I said, Tad, when I proposed to your mother, I said yes!"

LETTER TO LOUISA

Strict Mother Objects To Girl Going With Boy

DEAR LOUISA:—I am a young girl sixteen years old and want your advice.

I have been going with a boy for about two months. My mother thinks I have just started going with him. She is very strict. He is about 18 or 19 years old and says he loves me very much. But lately he has been going with a girl friend of mine. He tells stories all the time—you never know when to believe him. He stopped seeing her about a week and a half and today he started going with her again. He wants me to stop school and run away and marry him. I have two more years. I love him very much and don't know what to do. The job he has keeps him travelling and he wants me to travel with him. Tell me what I should do and whether to believe him or not.

WONDERING.

Answer:

There are three excellent reasons why you should not marry this boy. The first is that he is undependable. One thing necessary to the happiness of married people is the trust-worthiness of a partner. If you cannot believe anything he says now he is not likely to improve as time goes on. For all you know he may be married already and have a wife in some other little town.

The second reason is that you haven't finished your education and are too young. Every girl should finish school and prepare herself to make a living for she never knows what life has in store for her.

The third reason is that you have not known him long enough to judge what kind of husband he will make. Getting married is a serious business and should not be entered into unless you know this man and his people well.

So take my advice and refuse to get serious. Any boy who is urging a sixteen year old to run away and get married is either up to no good or hasn't much practical common sense.

LOUISA.

Dear Louisa:

I am a widower—my wife having died several years ago. I am very lonesome.

I have a woman neighbor who seems to be a very fine person and who is alone in the world. She is about 45 years old and I am about 60.

Do you think there is too much difference in our ages to think of marriage? How should I go about finding out how she thinks about it?

LONESOME.

Answer:

I think it would be a fine thing for you to get a congenial companion to share the rest of your life. The woman you speak of sounds like an ideal match for you.

The difference in ages doesn't matter after a person reaches 40 nearly so much as if you were 40 and she were 25. Both of you have reached the age where companionship and congeniality means more than romance.

Ask her to go to the movies or to church with you some evening. You can talk to her about how much you miss having a woman in the home and if she is interestel I am sure she will let you know it.

LOUISA.

ALMORE NEWS BRIEFS

Miss Sophie Paronich, Dakin supervisor, was out to Edmonton and Chipman, visiting friends and relations.

Mr. Paul Dakin has arrived from Prince George, where he is employed by his brother-in-law, Raymond Skoglund, who has a road construction outfit in operation around there. Paul, his wife and two daughters, Paulette and Jeanette, will be going back on Thursday for an indefinite length of time. George Dakin, his father, will run the farm while Paul is away.

Farmers around the district are taking advantage of the early threshing and are doing a lot of fall plowing. There is still a lot of grass seed unthreshed but — well — we should get our Indian Summer shortly, shouldn't we?

There will be a miscellaneous shower for Muriel Fisher on Oct. 12, at the home of Mrs. Boiselle at Charron. Muriel will be married later in the month. She used to live in Atmare, her father operating the store here. „

We hear the Bulletin is giving the "Queens for a Day" a gift of seventy dollars apiece for eats while on their dream trip to Hollywood. Hurrah for the Bulletin!

Mr. H. H. Dakin has gone ot Edmonton for the colder part of the winter. His 80 years don't keep him warm anymore. Besides he needs medical attention.

KIKINO TOPICES

Adrien Amiot Leaves Egg Lake

EGG LAKE.—District lost one of its oldest families when Mr. Adrien Amiot bought a store from his brother-in-law, Mr. Raymond Lebeuf, in Lac la Biche, and took possession on Oct. 10.

They had resided in this district since 1915. His son Alain will will take charge of the farm. Residents wish Mr. Amiot good success in his new enterprise. The church loses its organist at the same time in the person of Mrs. Amiot.

Another disaster happened, when Mr. P. Pszyniezny had the misfortune to lose his house by fire on Oct. 11. Cause of the fire is unknown.

Mr. and Mrs. Pszyniezny had gone to the village with their two boys and their 13 year old daughter Elda was alone at home and could not save anything. This is the second time in 10 years that Mr. Pszyniezny has had his house burned.

The first time they had gone to a dance in the school and when they returned there was nothing left of the house.

Farmers are working overtime to thresh and combine their crop. The humming sound of machinery can be heard sometimes far into the night.

Mr. Erickson from Plamondon, has his bulldozer in the district and some farmers are having land cleared.

Mr. Ulric Menard has bought a new International truck.

Mr. Marcel Vincent has received the sad news of the death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. J. P. Vincent of Yellowknife, N.W.T, Sympathies go out to the afflicted family.

Miss Madeline has gone to Anzac to work.

City Hunters Confused Here

BLUE JAY.— It seems that a few residents in this district were nearly startled out of their wits, when they heard loud crashes of gun fire and blood-chilling yells in their back yards. But it really wasn't much, only a group of hunters from the city, shooting at what "they thought" were wild chickens in what "they thought" was a wild forest.

A shower party was held recently at the home of Mrs. Bossel for Miss Muriel Fisher, who is to be married in the near future.

Mr. Mike Kochan of Spruce Valley has completed building an addition to Mr. Mike Ilnichi's garage.

"MEN AT WORK" SCENES

TORONTO, Ont. — Those who only like work if they can watch it, have had a field day here since the huge subway construction has been creeping, block by block, up Yonge Street. One day last week 1,250 were counted busily "watching work" at the most northerly excavated section.

ALBERTA WILL WATCH DECORE

By HENRY THOMPSON

Democratic Canadians whose ancestors hailed from European lands will watch with interest the work of John Decore, MP, barrister, and former school teacher representing the constituency of Vegreville, who has been named as a delegate to the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Mr. Decore defeated the Social Credit candidate, Mr. Hylinka, who represented the constituency before the last dominion election.

Our acquaintance with Mr. Decore is very limited but on the two occasions we saw him at work, once as a client for a local resident in the courts and again on the platform as Liberal candidate in the last election.

While some may not agree with his politics, they must concede him considerable ability.

A fluent speaker, impressive, with good sound reasoning argument which displays an intimate knowledge of his subject, this man will contribute his share to the World Council's deliberations.

Mr. Decore is recognized as an expert on eastern European affairs.

Alberta's St. Mary's River dam will provide irrigation for 345,000 moisture-starved acres.

AMA Condemns Hurling Bottles From Cars

Action to curb the dangerous traffic menace of hurling emtpy bottles from motor cars is being taken by officials of the Alberta Motor Association.

Attention to this practice was drawn at a recent meeting of the Edmonton branch. It was contended that the practice constitutes a highway hazard and should be stamped out.

During the discussion, it was pointed out that the practice is a violation of the Motor Vehicles and Highway Traffic Act. It was felt that an educational campaign might have beneficial results.

Another suggestion was that motorists should take down the license number of a car from which empty bottles were being hurled to the highway so that required action could be taken later.

It also has been suggested to AMA officials that markings of 'skull and crossbones' should be placed on highways where fatal accidents have occurred. These would be painted as a warning to motorists to drive carefully.

Five Master Farm Families Are Named in Alberta

Five outstanding Alberta farm families have been named 'Master Farm Families' by Hon. David Ure, minister of agriculture. Each family receives an award of $1,000, an engraved plaque, and a name plate for the farm entrance.

finally being confirmed by a provincial committee. Both technical and practical agriculture and home economics are represented on all committees. The five honored families represent regions corresponding roughly to the five soil zones of Alberta.

Following are this year's master farm families:

E. S. Parson family, Boyle; Emile Cammaert family, Rockyford; Chas. J. Kallal family, Tofield; Roy Ballhorn family, Wetaskiwin; and the Fred Labrecque family, Spirit River.

Objectives of the master farm family program are to provide a practical demonstration of farm and family progress and approved farm practices which bring success. This is to emphasize the advantages of the farming vocation and the wholesomeness and dignity of rural life. It is designed also to show the farm youth the high ideals of agriculture and the opportunities in rural life.

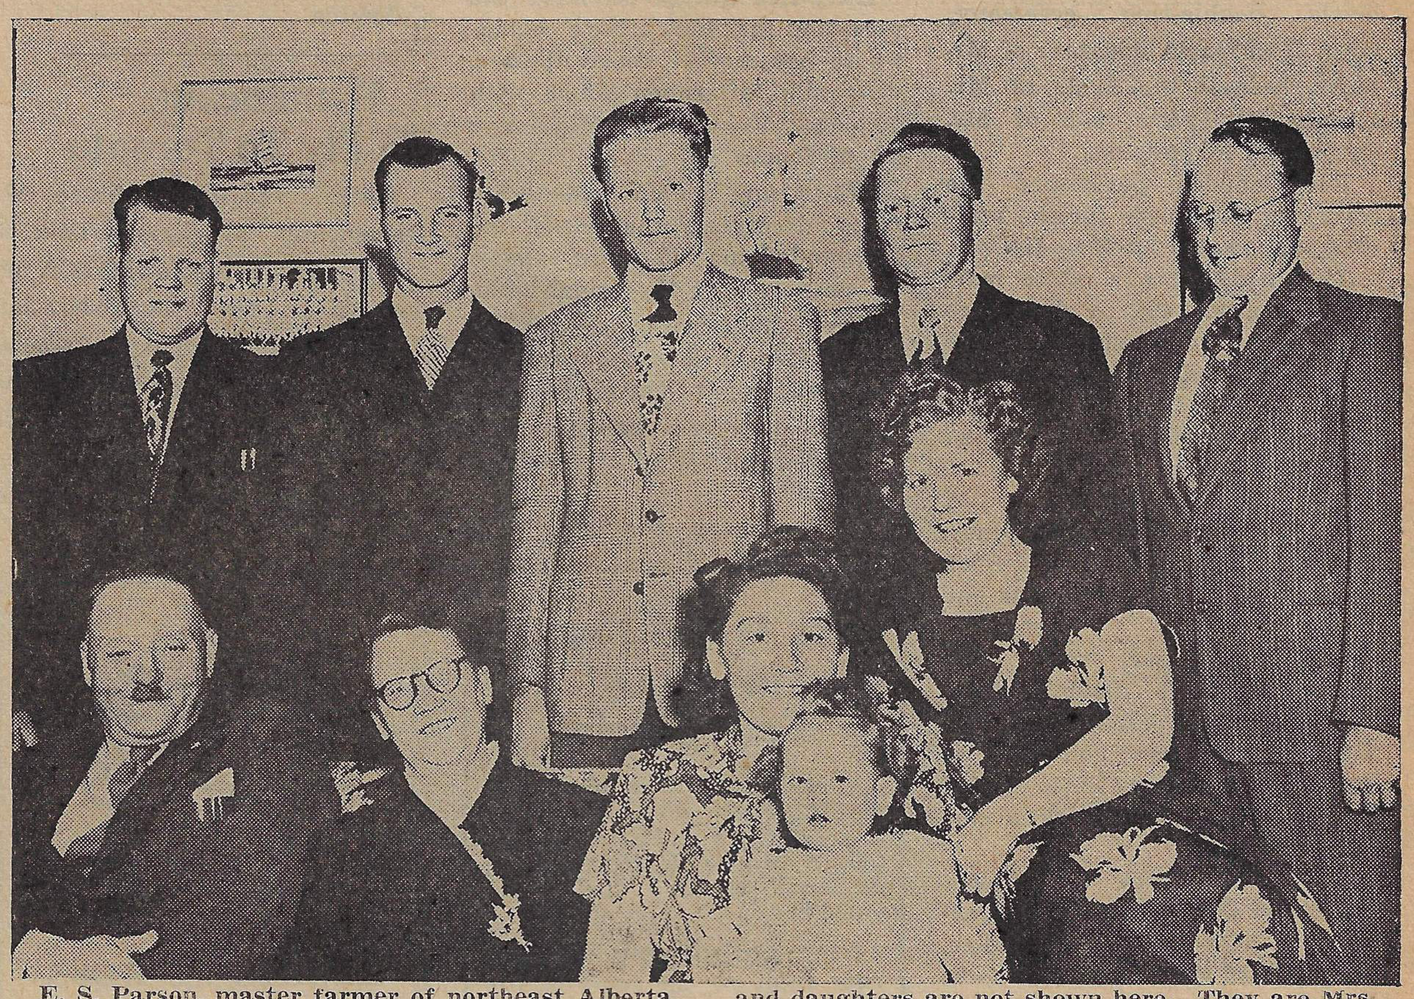

Interest in the program throughout rural Alberta was very keen and 48 families were nominated.

Selection of the award winners is conducted on a district then a regional basis with the selections

A scoring system allots points for each of 87 factors of farm living and farm plant. The system is organized under four main headings, namely: the home and farmstead, operation and organization of the farm, family and community life, and management and business methods. Possible scores have been carefully worked out for each division according to its relative importance and the record of each candidate was measured on this detailed basis.

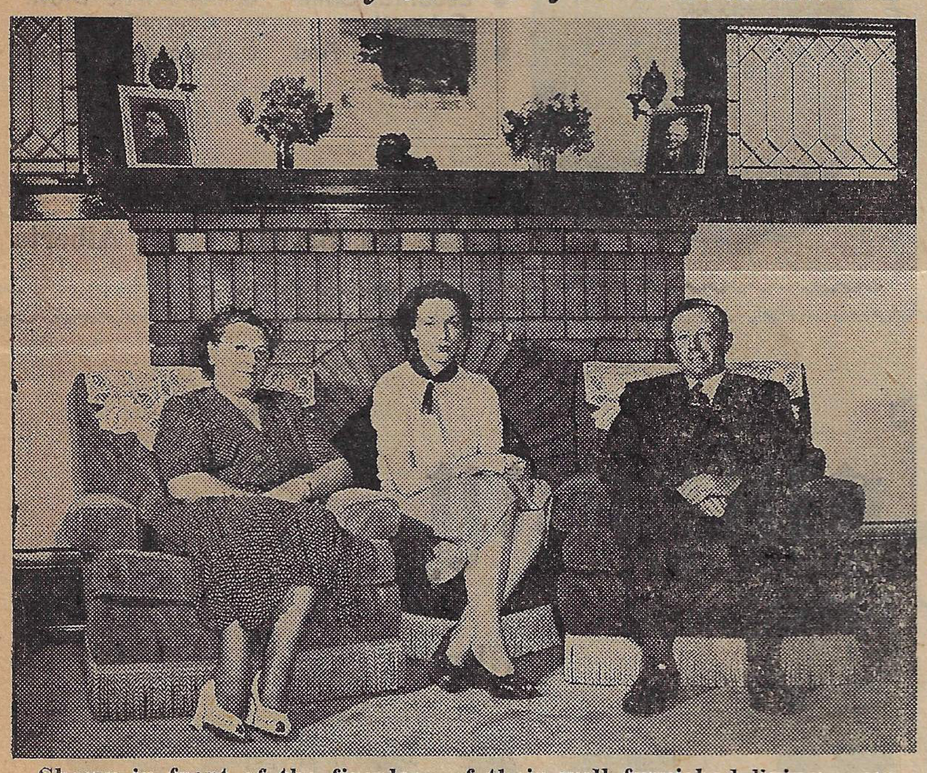

On behalf of the provincial government, Mr. Ure expressed congratulations to the five master farm families for the outstanding records of achievement they have registered in their communities. The minister of agriculture congratulated too the 43 other candidates who were honored by being nominated by their neighbors.

Parson Family of Boyle is Honored

Cammaert Family of Rockyford Gets Award

Rockyford's Cammaert Family Has Outstanding Farm

A man who borrowed $250 to come to Alberta from his native Belgium, 48-year-old Emile John Cammaert of Rockyford, this week climaxed 30 years of farming when he and his family were named among Alberta's master farm families.

Even before a person enters the Cammaert farm it is sensed that this is one of the district's outstanding farms. When the farm first comes into view your eye immediately is caught by the well planned farmstead and the well maintained buildings creating the impression that here is an efficiently managed farm.

Emile Cammaert is a good manager and a natural leader but the success of his farming career has not been a solo effort—it is definitely a family project. Mrs. Cammaert, 22-year-old John, and 17-year-old Margaret, are all willing tenacious workers, and all play an important part in the farm operation. A great family spirit exists in the Cammaert household and it is obvious that they fully enjoy living together.

Mr. Cammaert will always remember the day of his arrival at Rockyford. It was in December of 1919 and the temperature was 60 degrees below zero. His welcome was made cooler by the fact that he had lost his overcoat a few hours earlier in the railway station at Saskatoon. For his first six years in Alberta Mr. Cammaert worked on a farm for his aunt, Miss Stephanie Cammaert. In 1923 he rented a quarter-section of land from an uncle and in 1925 began farming for himself when he rented 870 acres of land.

All the conveniences of a first class city home are contained in the fully modern eight-room home of the Cammaert family. Such articles as an electric range, electric refrigeration, and electric mixers are all part of the kitchen equipment. The house is heated by a coal furnace but this presents no hardship because an automatic stoker has been installed. The bright spacious living room indicates Mrs. Cammaert's exceptionally good taste in furnishing and decorating.

A real highlight of the farm is the swimming pool in front of the house. The 12-foot by 25-foot pool was built in 1941. It started out to be a lily pond for Mrs. Cammaert but it was turned into a swimming pool.

Mr. Cammaert has always used irrigation on his present farm. Using sprinkler irrigation he can irrigate about 1,000 acres while previously he could irrigate about 320 acres under the flood irrigation system.

Emile Cammaert and John now are raising purebred Shorthorn cattle. This project started in 1943 and prior to that time they raised purebred hogs. At present the Cammaerts have 56 purebred Shorthorn cattle of excellent quality. Mr. and Mrs. Cammaert flew to Scotland to attend a Shorthorn auction sale. He hopes to purchase 10 females in order to strengthen his herd. Mr. Cammaert plans to hold a sale at his farm in the spring when he will sell 10 bulls and 15 females. At his last sale in 1948 he sold 32 head of cattle.

There have been no horses on the Cammaert farm since 1928 when Mr. Cammaert started developing operations with the machine age. Cammaerts operate a full line of modern machinery. All repairs are done immediately either in the field or in the well equipped machine shop.

Mr. Cammaert estimated his crop production for this year as follows: 18,000 bushels of wheat, 4,000 bushels of oats, 2,000 bushels of barley, 145 tons of hay and 40 tons of straw. On one plot Mr. Cammaert averaged 62 bushels of wheat per acre.

Parson Family of Boyle District Is Big Family of Hard Workers

E. S. Parson of Boyle, head of the master-farm family of that section of Alberta which has Athabasca at its centre, acquired a taste for the land as a young farm hand in Sweden where he was born in 1892, son of a policeman.

For a little while before coming with his 20-year-old bride to Canada—he himself was only 21—he followed the trade of a miller.

When these young people reached Athabasca in 1913 they were little equipped except for the lessons he had learned on the Swedish farm—that and the will to work.

To her husband and 11 sons and daughters Mrs. Parsons is 'Mum' though no doubt known more formally to the Swedish registrar-general as Eve because, her husband explains, she is mother to us all. Indeed, this is a task which has left her little time for any but the strictly domestic duties of the home.

He, on the other hand, is a leader in the community—president of the federal and provincial CCF for the Athabasca constituency and the Athabasca District Agricultural Society secretary manager of the Watershed Co-operative Livestock Association; director of Federated Co-ops Limited; chairman of the Boyle local of the Alberta Farmers' union and the local school board and member of the School Trustees' Association; delegate to the Alberta Livestock Co-op and the Alberta Poultry Producers; member of the Boyle Board of Trade and a warden of the Lutheran Church.

All of his sons and daughters have taken part in every junior farm activity in the district though these have been few around Boyle and often short-lived. A calf club and a swine club, for instance, operated for only one year but Allan and Agnes were both active in it. Ragner and Agnes scored highest points at their school fair and both attended the short course at the school of agriculture at Vermilion. Nels-Eric attended the wheat pool short course two years ago and Allan and Mlidred the course at Athabasca this year—an occasion which the father of the family utilized to act as host to the students for one day at Esplund farm.

This year the apple trees provided Mrs. Parson with canning material for 125 quarts, so Mr. Parson says. His wife, insistent on the whole truth and nothing but, says it was only a hundred. Not that it matters much, for her storage capacity is 1,000 quarts.

Esplund farm attracts attention even before it comes into view. Secured from sight from the road by a dense natural shelter belt—part of the growth the founder had to clear from his homestead—the approach is by a driveway through avenues of trees suggestive of a trim park.

Access to the farmyard is by a heavy gate in the substantial fencing, and within this is the home, standing in its own grounds which include the kitchen garden, lawns, flower gardens and the acre-and-a-half orchard.

But the family are not resting on the master farm family laurels. The plumbers are still on the premises, perfecting the bathroom, the kitchen sink, the sewage system. 'The boys' are still carpentering and painting.

Of the 640 acres, 450 have been cultivated this year, the remainder fenced for pacture. Wheat, oats and barley are their chief crops and their livestock consists of Shorthorn cattle, Yorkshire hogs from purebred stock, Suffolk sheep, Percheron horses and Leghorn poultry. Queen of the livestock is the prize winning Shorthorn, Townsview-Myrtle, but native of the Esplund farm is her calf, Esplund Rose.

Jean Marie Parham Wed At Warspite

WARSPITE — On Saturday, September 30, the Warspite United Church was decorated for a lovely double-ring ceremony, when Jean Marie, daughter of Mr. Bank, became the bride of Mr. George Desjardins, son of Mr. Desjardins of Ontario.

Rev. Sauder performed the ceremony and music for the wedding was played by Mrs. Holmes.

The bride wore a white marquisette gown with a deep lace yoke and a floor-length veil. She wore a six-strand pearl necklace, gift of the grom, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses and lily of the valley.

Mrs. Burton Templeman of Wetaskiwin, was matron-of-honor, wearing a light blue taffeta gown and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Helen Bazian in mauve taffeta and Miss Joan Carson in pink taffeta with coronets and veils to match their gowns. Both carried bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Marlda Gwaltney was flower girl, gowned in salmon pink marquisette with tight-fiting bodice, long ruffled skirt and woven satin head band. She carried a pink basket and went up the aisle dropping rose petals, making a rose-strewn path for the bride.

Mr. John Bell was best man and Messrs. Ernest and Norman Parkham were ushers.

Sixty-five guests attended the reception at the bride's home, where her mother received in a wine silk afternoon dress with matching accessories and corsage of gardenias.

White and yellow sweetheart roses decorated the house and surrounded the tall white candles which glowed on the bridal table.

The toast was proposed by Mr. Robert Austin of Vancouver, B.C. The bride popped the champagne.

In the evening a dance was held in the Warspite Hall attended by 150 guests.
